Maryland has a lot of "halfway houses", such as VOA. These are for prisoners, mostly Federal, who have been released early, for whatever reason. These houses receive a lot of federal funds to house, treat, and reintegrate these people back into society.

These halfway houses across Maryland are emptying out, for safety because of having a lot of people in close proximity, and moving them all into hotels. Another building with a lot of people in close proximity 😳

Hotels are kicking out long term paying guests because they are getting paid 2-3 times the normal rate for them. Of course these tax payer funded halfway houses are still receiving their normal funding, while being empty, and they are applying for emergency grants and loans, while taxpayers are paying triple over that for the people they kicked out for "safety"😳

There's nothing like paying 5 times , or more, for the same service.

As this shutdown continues more and more Jackals will see ways to make money off of it.
Maryland is now allowing people on welfare with no jobs, to apply for "unemployment". This has crashed the system and is causing problems for people really out of work.

They won't get any unemployment benefits, but it qualifies them for the $600 wk Covid payments and the $1200 stimulus. I'm sure many can use it but the abuse is staggering.

And of course plans are already being drafted for the "yearly Covid outbreak" we've already heard about 😳
Osama, Isis, etc. They have found their new boogeyman and they intend to use it to control us in every way possible.🙏

And the prisoners, who are out early on parole/probation are not being monitored or "reintegrated" while in these hotels.

The unemployment benefits and the $600 wk Covid will stop eventually, it has too.
Another outbreak in September, whether natural or man-made, will ensure further lockdown and the continuation of that money. Unfortunately many people are rooting for that.

I can't wait to hear the first DS Dem politician political ads using the covid-19 virus." I believe the virus is still a threat, I want to continue those payments to you as long as it takes, until we are safe, as long as it saves one life it is worth any price".😳

They aren't paying for it, we are. They aren't missing meals, we are.
Just another way for them to buy votes with your tax dollars.

Then we'll have the truly parasitic people, who after taking every dollar they can for a year or more that this goes will try to sue because of it. "I lost a year of, my career, school, earning potential, etc. It cost me promotions because of YOUR shutdown guidelines".

And on and on. They are truly insane with the plans they have for this they intend of milk in every way possible

America is reaching a very big FU moment. As certain states continue to lock down even more they are deliberately abusing their Citizens AND the Police. Violating the Constitution to gain power and rig elections is what they want. But they also want to turn people against the Police. They know these new unconstitutional orders are unpopular. And making the police departments enforce them are causing people to resent the police. Drawing a deeper line between the people and the police department. That is

I'm going to get in trouble for this one. I've been told the DS Dems don't care about Biden, or Pres election, they know they can't beat Trump. Anything they do is to keep up appearances in that direction. They are concentrating on gaining control in Congress and the Senate.

They intend to impeach Trump on day one if they do. And I'm told they have, if not "help", they have "assurances" from someone close to Trump 😬😬😬😬😬😬 that supports this.
